

2 Days & 1 Night Bidayuh Village Bamboo Rafting & Homestay

Based on 2 passengers: RM550. per person includes, meals, transfers, and lodging as described. Option to camp out overnight instead of homestay. Trekking at your ability level.

Rafting Day Trip Available for RM350. per person

Day 1: (L,D) Pick up at airport or hotel and transfer to our Bidayuh village and meet the homestay family, check in, and have tea or coffee. Change to trekking gear before the adventure start. Help to prepare the raft or busy yourself with photo taking. Enjoy the forest music around you.

Today, you are going to experience how to make the bamboo raft and walk for the first time on Bamboo bridge traversing the rivers or the valley.

Experience how to navigate the raft drifting downstream and enjoy the beautiful jungle environment with wild orchids, epiphytes plants and lianas dangling above your head. There lies in the lush vast forest plentiful of wild vegetables and ferns. Follow the local folks to harvest these vegetables where hence the skillful arts of cooking in bamboo still holds story in the tribal tradition.

Day 2: (B,L) Pay visit to our ancient ground

Breakfast, wake up to the merry chipping of the birds. Trek through secondary forest and rubber garden, pepper gardens, cocoa gardens and fruits orchard. Learn about the wild herbs and plants that play important roles in native lives. Animals can be encountered along the journey if lady luck is with us. Enjoy the serenity of the jungle.

The ancient head house that still houses the centuries old skulls and the heritage ground is where the "Pinyewa Bidayuh" settle themselves in olden days. Give respect to the great warrior and pray for goodness for the next day of life and forever. Delicious BBQ lunch will be prepared by your guides from fresh jungle produce at waterfall. Transfer back to homestay, free at leisure until transfer back to Kuching
